A Washington dispatch to the Eccaing
Post says:

A private letter received here this morning from one of the District Commanders in the South says that since the result of the recent elections at the North became widely known, affairs in his District have indergone complete change. The late rebels are no longer disposed to accept the situation. They regard the elections in Penneylvania and Obin as an Indersement of the friends and symphthisers of the "lost cause."

These sentiments, the letter says, are not confined to the lower and more ignorant classes of Southern whites, but are shared by the most intelligent and respectable. The late sinve owners openly assert their Entel that in a year or two slavery will be restored, or that the Government will be good to the firm the fact that the late slaveholders all through his district are given more and and the owners of this species of property.
